

EARL'S COURT SQUARE RESIDENTS' ASSOCIATION

Protecting and enhancing Earl's Court Square and the lives of the people who live and work here

Affiliated Societies:

The Earl's Court Society

The objects of the Society are to preserve and improve the neighbourhood of Earl's Court for the public benefit, to include but not limited to the following:

1. Promoting the protection, preservation and improvement of local buildings and amenities, including formulating planning advice for the area.
2. Representing and expressing the views of residents and those working in the neighbourhood where appropriate
3. Supporting and encouraging Residents' Associations and similar bodies in the area
4. Promoting the commercial wellbeing of the area
5. Acting when required as an advisory group to the Council of the Royal Borough of Kensington and Chelsea and as a forum bringing together statutory, voluntary and commercial bodies with the RBK&C Council and residents.

DEFINITION OF THE AREA OF EARL'S COURT

The area of the Society's interest defined by the Society as the neighbourhood of Earl's Court, based on the original Earl's Manorial Lands, is from Kensington High Street in the north to Fulham Road in the south and from the West London Railway Line in the west to cover Courtfield, Ashburnham and Lexham Gardens. to the east, without defined borders.

More can be found at <http://www.earlscourtsociety.org.uk/>

The Kensington Society

Formed in 1953, the Charity's objects shall be to preserve and improve the amenities of Kensington for the public benefit by stimulating interest in its history and records, promoting good architecture and planning in its future development and by protecting, preserving and improving its buildings, open spaces and other features of beauty or historic or public interest.

The Royal Borough of Kensington & Chelsea was created in 1965 with the merger of the Royal Borough of Kensington and the Metropolitan Borough of Chelsea. Kensington – the area we watch over on your behalf – is the area north of Fulham Road and Walton Street

<http://www.kensingtonsociety.org>

EARL'S COURT SQUARE RESIDENTS' ASSOCIATION

Protecting and enhancing Earl's Court Square and the lives of the people who live and work here

Local Links:

The Earl's Court Square Garden

The Earl's Court Square Garden is run as a separate Sub-Committee to the Earl's Court Square Residents' Association.

The mission is to provide a well-run communal garden which serves as a focal point for community involvement, service, and entertainment; which provides a welcoming space for quiet reflection and courteous play; and which enhances both the enjoyment and the value of our homes.

Please apply to The Earl's Court Square Garden Sub-Committee for keys to the Garden Square.

<http://www.ecsgarden.org.uk/>

Friends of Brompton Cemetery

The cemetery is Grade I Listed on the English Heritage Register of Historic Parks and Gardens.

The 39-acre (16 hectare) site lies between Old Brompton and Fulham Roads, a five minute walk from Earl's Court Square.

The Friends of Brompton Cemetery work to preserve this remarkable site as a model of an historic cemetery with an active role in modern society. They help to restore and maintain the cemetery's buildings, monuments and landscape, and encourage their full use by those sympathetic to the importance, beauty, heritage and fragility of this significant cemetery. They offer visitors Sunday afternoon tours, guidebooks, maps and postcards.

<http://brompton-cemetery.org.uk/>

Earl's Court Safer Neighbourhood Team Ward Panel

Meets quarterly and sets the priorities for policing within Earl's Court Ward. At present these are:

Earls Court Ward Priorities:

- 1 - Burglary
- 2 - Motor Vehicle Crime
- 3 - Anti Social Behaviour

Kensington Cluster Priorities:

- 1 - Reduce Theft Person offences
- 2 - Reduce alcohol related disorder & ASB in the night time
- 3 - Drug dealing and Drugs misuse.

Shailesh Katyal (ECSRA) represents Earl's Court Square on the Ward Panel.

"Total Policing is the Met's commitment to be on the streets and in your communities to catch offenders, prevent crime and support victims. They are here for London, working with you to make our capital safer."